Re: Webpro, Inc. v. Petrou
07 Civ. 4699 (LMM)

Dear Magistrate-Judge Peck:

This is to advise the Court that both defendants were served on June 12, 2007 by leaving a copy of the summons and complaint at their usual place of abode (their apartment building) with a person of suitable age and discretion. In addition, though not required under federal law, copies were also served by mail on June 18, 2007 in accordance with New York State law. The affidavits of service have been mailed to the Clerk for filing (since they cannot be electronically filed) and copies are enclosed herewith. Accordingly, plaintiff requests that the Court schedule a pretrial status conference.

A copy of the Court's Individual Practices and June 13, 2007 order have been mailed to defendants with a copy of this letter.

Respectfully submitted,

Roger J. Bernstein

cc. Arthur Petrou and Jill Schneider Petrou
(By First-Class mail, w/ encls.)

MEMO ENDORSED

1. The Court will schedule the pretrial conference for July 13, 2007. The parties do not have to appear at the pretrial conference. The parties should come for a pretrial conference. The Court is to give the parties a pretrial conference. The Court is to give the parties a pretrial conference.
